

Camera, light, action? Using action research with people who are reluctant to act: The case of invasive alien species.

Environmental Sciences, Copernicus Institute,
Utrecht University

Asst. Prof.
Frank van Laerhoven

Editor-in-chief of the International Journal of the Commons

June 22th 15:00 - 17:00

Dr. Frank van Laerhoven is a researcher affiliated with the Nobel Prize Winner Elinor Ostrom Workshop. He studies environmental governance, particularly the governance of ecosystems. His research agenda includes an interest in common pool resources (CPRs), socio-ecological systems, decentralization reforms, local democracy and participation, and the solving of collective action dilemmas.

