

附件一：List of Master courses provided at the Department of Socioeconomics (UHH) as of the date of MOU signature (both English and German courses)

Master of Interdisciplinary Public & Nonprofit Studies (M.Sc.)

- Civil society
- Disaster Management
- Energy Sector and Organizations
- Environmental Studies/Climate Change
- Interdisciplinary Master Course (Fundamentals of Public/Nonprofit Sector)
- International and European Administration Studies
- International Nonprofit Studies/Development
- International Relations
- Nonprofit Economics
- Nonprofit Law
- Nonprofit Management/Philanthropy
- Public & NPO Research Methods (qualitative and quantitative)
- Public Enterprises
- Public Goods
- Public Law
- Public Management
- Public Policy and Governance
- Public/Nonprofit Research Project
- Social Investment
- State Activities
- Sustainability Management
- Volunteering

Master of International Business and Sustainability (M.A.)

- Applied Business Ethics
- Business and the Natural Environment
- Consumer Decision and Behavior
- Current Topics of International Management & Economics
- Current Topics of Sustainability Management & Socioeconomics
- Decision Theory

- ESG and Capital Markets
- Finance & Investment
- Group Accounting & Controlling
- Industrial Ecology
- Innovation Management
- International Accounting and Controlling
- International CSR Reporting
- International Market Strategies
- International Normative Framework on Sustainable Management
- International Organization
- International Strategic Management
- Introduction to CSR: Fundamentals and Current Problems of Business Ethics
- Management Accounting and Control
- Organizational Behavior and Leadership
- Qualitative Methods of Empirical Social Research
- Quantitative and Qualitative Methods in Social Science & Economics
- Quantitative Research Methods for Market Strategies
- Reading and Understanding Academic Articles
- Recent Challenges in Managing Public and Nonprofit Sectors
- Strategic Human Resource Management
- Sustainability and Management

Master of Human Resource Management (M.A.)

- Advanced Labor Law
- Current Topics and Instruments of HRM
- HRM Colloquium
- International Human Resources and Organizational Management
- Internship
- Internship Report
- Introduction to CSR: Fundamentals and Current Problems of Business Ethics
- Managing Diversity
- Methods of Human Resource and Organizational Research
- Organizational Behavior and Leadership
- Organizational Theory and Development
- Practical Implications of HRM

- Preparation for Master Thesis
- Strategic Human Resource Management
- Study Project in HRM and Organizational Research

Master of Arts (M.A.) Labor, Economy, Society – Economic and Social Studies

- Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Labor, Economy and Society (4 courses on varying topics each semester)
- Markets, Globalization, Sustainability (4 courses on varying topics each semester)
- Social Welfare, State, Integration (4 courses on varying topics each semester)